

The 5th Korea-Japan-China Forum on Communicable Disease Control and Prevention

November 16-17, 2011

International Conference Room

Osong Health and Technology Administration Complex, Osong, Korea

Opening Remarks

Chaired by Dr Hyekyung Park (Korea)

9:00-9:30 Dr Byung-Yool Jun, Director, KCDC
Dr Haruo WATANABE, Director-General, NIID
Dr YANG Weizhong, Deputy Director-General, China CDC

9:30-9:40 Group Photo

Session 1: Impact of Climate Change and Natural Disaster in Public Health

Chaired by Dr Haruo WATANABE
Director-General, NIID (Japan)

9:40-10:10 Climate Change and Allergy Diseases
Dr Young-Shil Lim, Dr Eun-Jin Kim (Korea)

10:10-10:40 Post Disaster Surveillance for Infectious Disease after the Great East Japan
Earthquake 2011
Dr Tomimasa SUNAGAWA (Japan)

10:40-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-11:30 Disaster and Emergency Response
Dr NI Daxin (China)

11:30-12:00 Vector Surveillance in the Area Affected by the Tsunami of the Earthquake
Dr Mutsuo KOBAYASHI (Japan)

12:00-13:00 Lunch

Session 2: Current Events on Public Health

Chaired by Dr YANG Weizhong
Deputy Director-General, China CDC (China)

13:00-13:30 Public Health Events Related with MDRO
Dr Hyekyung Park (Korea)

13:30-14:00 Wild Poliovirus Outbreak in Xinjiang and Emergency Response in China
Dr WANG Haibo (China)

14:00-14:30 Emergency Laboratory Testing of Type 1 Wild Poliovirus in Xinjian, China
Dr YAN Dongmei (China)

14:30-15:00 A New Approach in Public Health by Applying an Ultra High-throughput DNA
Sequencing Technique
Dr Makoto KURODA (Japan)

15:00-15:30 Discussion and Summary
Dr Jun-Wook Kwon,
Director-General, KCDC (Korea)

15:30-16:00 Osong Campus Tour